NOVEMBER
CHESHVAN - KISLEV

PRAYER
In Judaism, prayer is reflective. It's a moment in time where we pause and reflect on ourselves. Where are we, and where do we want to be? It's a time of reflection and self-accounting. It is also a time of connection to our souls, G-d, and our greater Jewish community.

When we recite the ancient words of the prayers, facing Jerusalem, we join millions of Jews around the globe and connect with millennia of Jews from our past who recite the same prayers. Perhaps that is one of the many reasons our prayers are crafted in the plural. We don't pray for me, we pray for us. More than just being about ourselves, prayer is a time for us to go beyond ourselves and connect with the greater Jewish community.
